TOWNSHIP 54, range 21, east of Fort Saskatchewan is a statute labor district with Albert Nelson road overseer.

MISS ROGERS, teacher of the Fraser avenue school, left for Toronto on Tuesday's train to visit relatives during the holidays.

THE Nugget Nell Company of Calgary amateurs, show in Edmonton July 12th and 13th and on the 15th in South Edmonton.

THE steamer Upas was launched for the season at Fraser's mill on Saturday last. The river is now at a stage that will permit her to navigate easily.

THE case against Messrs. Robinson and Hill came up on Tuesday before C. W. Sutter, J. P., and was again adjourned to Wednesday, July 10th.

DUNCAN McDONALD leaves to-day for his last winter's hunting grounds on Great Slave river. He takes a good outfit of supplies with him and will not be back till next year.

THOS. ANDERSON, who has been crown timber agent at Edmonton since 1881 and land agent as well for the past three years, has retired from the public service and will be superannuated.

REV. C. E. SOMERSET left on Tuesday's train for Red Deer to take charge of the Indian industrial school there, under management of the Methodist church. Mrs. Somerset accompanied him.

MONDAY'S train brought in one car of merchandise for G. F. & J. Galt, one car of hardware and one of merchandise from Winnipeg for the H. B. Co., one car of cement from Fort William for Ross Bros., and a number of way cars.

F. W. STUART, head of the wholesale dry goods house of Stuart & Co., Winnipeg, has been arrested on a charge of shooting small shot into several men who were bathing in the Assiniboine near his residence, with a view of inducing them to keep their clothes on.

MR. AND MRS. JAS. GIBSON, of the C. P. R. station, South Edmonton, started on a three months' trip to Ireland on Tuesday's train. During their absence A. E. Armitage and Charlie Marsh, who came up from Calgary on Monday's train, will have charge of the office.

FREE PRESS, June 27th: Mr. R. A. Rutan, assistant secretary in the Dominion land office here, left last evening for Edmonton to take charge of the Dominion lands agency at that point, vice Mr. Thos. Anderson, who resigned the position a few weeks ago. A large gathering of Mr. Rutan's friends were at the C. P. R. depot to see him off.

R. A. RUTAN, late of the land commissioner's office, Winnipeg, arrived on Monday's train to take permanent charge of the land office here in the place of Thos. Anderson, whose term of office ceased on July 1st. Mr. Rutan acted as Dominion land agent at Edmonton for a time some years ago and made many friends then, which ensured him a hearty welcome on his present arrival.

THE Kaslo, B. C., Prospector of June 20th, has the following in its report of a concert held there: "Rev. C. A. Prosser read a selection, containing very fine poetic sentiment, entitled, 'The Three Wolves.' From an eloquent standpoint, his interpretation of the piece was perfect, his expression very good, but the enunciation was slightly indistinct, rendering a number of the words hard to recognize readily."

THE Moose Jaw Times has been running a year under its new proprietor Walter Scott, formerly of the Regina Standard. The Times is an ideal local paper and although started under very unfavorable circumstances is obtaining a fair measure of prosperity, which as the financial condition of its constituency improves with good crops, will become a brilliant success. The Times is a credit and a strength to the journalism of the Northwest.

THE Lethbridge News and Prince Albert Times of their most recent issues display cuts of a proposed Canadian flag printed in red on their first pages. The flag is red with Union Jack in upper left hand corner and white star in lower right hand corner. The star distinguishes the flag as Canadian. THE BULLETIN would much prefer to see the green maple leaf, which has long been recognized as the emblem of Canada, instead of the star, which has no Canadian significance near or remote.

THOS. SPENCE, who has been acting for a short time in California as immigration agent in the interests of the Northwest, arrived on Monday's train accompanied by Mrs. Spence with a view of taking up his residence in Edmonton. Mr. Spence is a very old timer in Manitoba, having been editor of the New Nation newspaper at the time of the first Riel rebellion and was afterwards clerk of the legislative council of Manitoba. He was also commissioner for the taking of the first Northwest census in 1881.

C. GALLAGHER cured about 75,000 pounds of pork last fall for sale in his own business. The sides are all sold out and he has already been compelled to import bacon. The hams do not go as quickly as the sides.

FIFTEEN members of the Koney island club spent the 1st at Cooking lake. They launched their boat and sailed around the lake. Messrs. Flater and Boyle remained on the island for the present week.

A. N. ROSE, of the great fur house of Joseph Ullman & Co., St. Paul, Minnesota, came in on Monday's train to look after the firm's interests here. The firm has been represented here for the past two years by Jas. Walsh, the veteran fur buyer.

JOS. BOILEAU and J. Lafleur, from Fort Smith Portage on Great Slave river, arrived on Sunday from the Landing with their trade of fur. They had two boats coming up the Athabasca and the Chipewyan Indians of their crew brought small lots of fur as well, which are now being sold.

W. T. HENRY has hit upon a new and attractive method of dressing his show window. He pins to any article the amount in bills which is required to buy it. The sight of so much money handled in such a loose and careless fashion is calculated to give almost any one a start in these hard times.

THIS voting on the $5,000 school debentures took place on Wednesday and passed off quietly. St. George Jellett, secretary of the school board, was returning officer. Forty-six votes were cast for the by-law and none against. This is a very satisfactory endorsement of the project of a new school house.

WM. DEWAN arrived from Battleford last week by trail and is camped at Fraser's mill. He has the contract for taking down coal for the industrial school at Battleford. He will build barges at Fraser's mill which will be towed to the Big Island, fifteen miles up the river, by the steamer Upas and there loaded with coal.

G. F. TUPPER, trader, and J. Cameron, jr., arrived on Wednesday from Isle la Crosse. Their fur will arrive in a day or two. They went by trail to Cold lake which empties into the Beaver river northwest of Pitt, then down the Beaver to English river and Isle la Crosse. They returned by a shorter canoe route almost direct from Isle la Crosse to Cold lake, the trip occupying eight days and including many portages.

THE following are the candidates writing for certificates at the examinations now going on under Insp. Calder's supervision in Edmonton school: For 3rd class—E. N. Caldwell, G. B. McDonald, Harriet McCallum, Belle J. Asher, Winnifred Shand, Belle M. McDunnand, Kate E. McDonald, Maggie Young, C. W. Richardson. For 2nd class—D. J. Matheson, M. McCauley, J. S. E. Batty.

A PROJECT is on foot for the starting of a beet root sugar industry at Edmonton on a large scale, the person interested being none other than the celebrated Claus Spreckles the sugar king of the Pacific coast. He already has a beet sugar farm and factory in California, but believes that the more northern climate with fertile soil would be more favorable to the growth of the beets and to increasing the quantity of sugar in them.

A PICNIC in aid of the Methodist church funds was held at Poplar lake yesterday in Fielders' grove. There was a good attendance and an excellent lunch was served. M. McCauley, was chairman. The following is the programme. Speech by chairman. Music by Mr. and Mrs. Dean. Recitation by Cora Rye. Recitation by Lizzie Kennedy. Speeches by Messrs. Campbell, Hayward Rosewell, J. Fielders, J. Fluker. Singing by Eva and Millie Dean. Recitation by Bertha McCauley. Recitation by Cora Rye. Speech by Rev. Mr. Dean. Speech by Rev. Mr. McDonald. The proceeds of the picnic was $9.50.

THE creamery company shipped 2,800 pounds of butter, not including weight of tubs, to the coast on Tuesday's train. The price at the station is 16c. a pound. This gives the farmer 10½c. or 11c. for his butter without the cost of manufacturing it and is reasonably sure sale and cash return. This is about as much as would get for the manufactured article in trade at the stores, with the possibility of his butter being refused altogether. In the present depressed condition of the butter trade the creamery offers the only cash outlet at even a moderate cash return.

Section 1 clause 75 of the prize list of the Territorial exhibition reads "25 bushels of red fife wheat." It should read 20 bushels.

SUPREME COURT.

On Tuesday P. Desormeau of St. Albert, who was arrested some time ago for cattle killing, was brought before Judge Rouleau on a plea of lunacy. The following jury was empanelled: G. R. F. Kirkpatrick, foreman, Jas. Bell, J. D. Clark, W. Easton, A. H. Goodwin, T. B. Henderson, T. W. Lines, W. McAdam, I. Cowie, J. E. Graham, W. Lockhart, A. H. Martin. A long list of witnesses was called to give evidence as to the soundness of the prisoner's mind, which included Dr. Strathly of Fort Saskatchewan; Drs. Wilson, Royal, and Brathwaite, of Edmonton, Mrs. Larocque of St. Albert, mother-in-law of Desormeau; Mrs. Desormeau, and several constables who guarded him in barracks. After deliberating for an hour and a half, the jury gave it as their decision that Desormeau was sane, but that as his health was poor his trial for cattle killing be not brought on until the fall sitting of the court. N. D. Beck for the crown, P. L. McNamara for the prisoner.

The argument in the case of Pruden vs. Squarebriggs was concluded yesterday and judgement reserved.

A large number of important chamber applications are being considered to-day. Judge Rouleau will leave for Calgary to-morrow.

SMALL FRUITS.

Now that the heat of summer is on even in the cool Northwest, people begin to think longingly of the cooling fruits which grow so abundantly in more southern regions, and are so high priced when they get within reach of the Northwest consumer. A great deal may be said and written about mildness of climate being induced by settlement and cultivation, but after all there is very little likelihood of bananas, oranges and coconuts ever being grown on the Saskatchewan. However, tropical fruits are not the only fruits, nor is it by any means established that they are the best fruits. Is not the strawberry of richer taste and more delicate flavor than the orange, and is not the raspberry better by far than the banana? Both the strawberry and raspberry grow abundantly in this part of the country, and do equally well growing wild or under cultivation.

Nothing need be said of the wild strawberry, which nearly every season is found in extravagant abundance almost everywhere in this district, and which is sold in town at $1.50 to $2.00 a patent pail. Occasionally a late frost nips the early blossoms and prevents the fruit from forming, but this is a very rare occurrence and seems to be the only drawback to which the wild strawberry is subject. Hardly varieties of the cultivated strawberry do as well here as they could anywhere and excel in flavor. Donald Ross has grown strawberries successfully for a number of years past, and the vines are loaded this year. The only winter protection given is a little mulch put on in the fall. The proprietor of the BULLETIN has also grown strawberries for a number of years and has never given them even that much protection, and yet they have done well. There is no reason why cultivated strawberries are not as plentiful in Edmonton as in Toronto except that the necessary labor is scarce and the necessary care has not been applied.

The wild raspberry grows abundantly almost everywhere and its fruit is unexcelled. It is cheaper than the strawberry in the market, being $1 to $1.50 a pail. It is if possible a more certain crop than the strawberry. Of the cultivated varieties a number are too delicate for this climate, while others will do well if laid down for the winter—that is bent over and buried lightly with earth. But the Turner variety thrives and bears fruit without more summer attention or winter protection than the wild bushes need. The only drawback from which they have suffered for the past two years is the attacks of the rabbits. The rabbits do not molest the wild bushes, but they eat down all cultivated bushes that they can reach to the surface of the snow. The bushes grow up again next season, but as they do not fruit on the new wood they do not bear the following summer. Then if the rabbits eat them down next winter the same loss results. It is only in seasons when the rabbits are very numerous that they affect the bushes, but when they are in large numbers the only thing to be done is to surround the bushes with a close fence of some sort. It may be remarked that ordinary mesh wire is not close enough to keep out rabbits.

The king of garden fruits in this district is the red currant. A small wild variety grows here, but not in any quantity of importance. But the hardy cultivated varieties that have been tried grow luxuriantly, yield abundantly and with great certainty and are not troubled by the rabbits to the slightest extent. The bushes winter safely without the slightest protection. Their only danger is an early and changeable spring. On the occasion of one mild winter here the sap was started in the bushes during February, then a cold snap in April froze the sap in the stems and so cut the bushes back. This has only occurred once, in the spring 1889. In the present year the spring opened early and the fruit formed very early and abundantly on the bushes, so that it was about half grown when the frost of May 27th occurred. This killed all exposed currants. Only those well sheltered in the centre of the bushes escaped. Such an occurrence is very unusual here. It is vexing when it does occur but need not be discouraging.

White currants which have much the same habit of growth as red currants attain the same success, and are not molested by rabbits.

Black currants, which are a very different fruit and of a different growth from red currants, grow wild in this district in great abundance and of several varieties. One variety is particularly fine, being equal to cultivated varieties in size and almost equal in flavor. It is likely that they would do well in cultivation, but the writer has had a number of wild black currant bushes planted for several years and the results have not been by any means satisfactory. They grow well, stand the winter well, and blossom abundantly, but do not bear much fruit, and are very subject to mildew. It may be that the best wild variety has not been secured. Of cultivated varieties the black Naples is perfectly hardy without special protection, grows well and fruits well, and as it blossoms later than the red or white varieties it is perfectly safe from spring frost. The Black Naples and the wild black are not touched by the rabbits.

Gooseberries of several varieties grow wild in the district, but are not as important as the fruits already mentioned. One variety has excellent large oval fruit and yields well both wild and in cultivation. It has a low running growth similar to the Houghton, and has no prickles. It is subject to the attacks of the rabbits, but as it lies close to the ground a great part of the bush is generally protected by the snow. The Houghton gooseberry is a cultivated variety that has been found fairly hardy. It has a low running growth, making it very suitable in windy localities, and after a season or two becomes thoroughly acclimated. In any case it is easy to protect by mulch. It has large prickles. The fruit is large and fine. The rabbits eat the bush wherever they can get at it. There are several wild varieties which the rabbits do not touch, but they are not sufficiently good to be worth cultivating.

The blackberry or black raspberry, which grows wild in Ontario has been introduced here, is perfectly hardy, grows luxuriantly and the fruit is abundant and delicious, quite equal to what grows in Ontario. The rabbits eat down the bushes if they are not protected, but the bush grows up again the next season and unlike the red raspberry gives some fruit even on the new wood. The cultivated varieties, when tried have been found too tender to stand the winter without protection of some kind, such as being earthed over, but if protected do well.

To sum up, all the leading small fruits growing in Eastern Canada, which are the most delicious fruits in the world, grow equally well at Edmonton under like cultivation. So that if we have not an abundance of small fruits in our gardens during the hot season, we know where the fault lies. No doubt the abundance and cheapness of wild fruits and the fact that many of the people did not feel themselves yet settled in their homes has tended to discourage the growing of fruit. But as the country fills up it will be the same with fruit as with hay, either raise our own or do without; and it is with a view of letting everyone know that we need not do without that this article is written.

DRAYTONVILLE.

Plenty of rain. Crops looking well.

Mr. and Mrs. Braden made a flying trip to the Fort last Saturday.

C. W. Pacholke killed another black bear lately. This is the third one he has killed this year.

There was a meeting held on Monday, 24th, at Mr. Biddinger's to arrange for a picnic on the 1st of July, at this place.

There will be athletic sports in the afternoon and speaking and singing in the forenoon. There will be a bowery at night. Everyone is invited to come.

Robert Caldwell has the contract to build the school house in the Pine school district, No. 359, for two hundred and seventy dollars.

The prairie land, which is known to be a light soil is proving to be the best land. Mr. Braden has the sample crop.

POPLAR LAKE.

The new school house is progressing rapidly and will be quite a landmark in the district when completed.

Mr. Calder, inspector of schools, paid our school a visit on the 14th ult. His report is very satisfactory in every respect. He says in his report Mr. Briggs is an excellent teacher, one of the best in Northern Alberta. He appears to be in hearty sympathy with the pupils. His government is evidently characterized by firmness and kindness.

Pic-nics are the order at present. A very successful one was held in Fielders' grove on Saturday. This was the children's annual picnic at the commencement of their summer holidays. Another comes off on Wednesday in aid of the Methodist church.

A meeting of the county association of the patrons of industry was held in the school house on Saturday. The next meeting of the above association will be held in Stony Plain school house on Saturday the 20th instant.

Crops are making rapid progress, but would do better with more rain.

July 1st, 1895.

GENERAL NEWS.

The British parliament will probably be dissolved about July 8th.

William Farr, the incendiary engineer of Winnipeg, has been committed to stand his trial in October. Bail was not granted.

The Whiteway government of Newfoundland is likely to be defeated for including the seasonal allowances of members of the assembly in their scheme of retrenchment.

Free Press Battleford correspondence, June 24: The cattle buyers have been through the district picking up cattle for export. Messrs. Gordon & Ironside secured 300 head, and Ben Prince and J. M. Skelton 350 head, all prime stock. They will be shipped to Liverpool in August.

A creamery is being erected in Prince Albert.

The Moose Jaw Times says that rain fell on nineteen out of the first twenty-six days of June, two inches of water in all.

The Manitoba legislature was prorogued on June 28th. The following reference is made to the school question in the lieutenant governor's speech of prorogation: "During the session you have been called upon by His Excellency the governor-general-in-council to pass legislation which would have the effect of impairing the public schools act of 1890 by restoring to one class in this province rights and privileges enjoyed by them. Your refusal to comply with this order, I have no doubt, meets with the approval of the majority of the people of Manitoba. I commend your memorial to His Excellency in council for its firmness and moderation in tone."

The Montreal Gazette's Ottawa special, June 25th, says: "It seems to be generally understood that no legislation in relation to the Hudson's Bay railway will be introduced this session. The promoters of the enterprise have submitted an amended proposition to the government in which they ask that instead of a loan of $10,000 a mile for 250 miles, the government taking all the properties of the company as security, there shall be advanced only $6,000 a mile, the company retaining the land grant and the postal subsidy of $80,000 a year. This latter proposition has been under consideration, but the government, according to report, is not to proceed with legislation this session."

"IT IS A MAGNIFICENT COUNTRY," COMMUNICATED.

An interesting interview appears in the Montreal Star in which Lieutenant Governor Mackintosh expresses great satisfaction at the recent census of Territorial population. He said he was not only satisfied, but added "More than this, it is going to continue. The western States will be a source of supply for many years to come. Recently I found that people arriving brought many implements and cattle, and all seemed satisfied. I visited the North some weeks ago. It is a magnificent country." His Honor further prophesied that the approaching Territorial Exhibition would prove an object lesson surprising to those who were not conversant with the public spirit and industry of the people, and the marvelous resources of Northern Alberta. Eastern papers comment favorably upon His Honor's remarks. It is only right that we should urge upon all the people of this district to prove that they appreciate his sentiments. He has assumed a great responsibility in personally supervising the Territorial Exhibition. He has guaranteed that those who visit Regina will be enabled to learn a significant lesson with reference to the resources of this great northern heritage. It remains then for the people to finish the key-stone to the arch. It remains for them to consider how great a mistake would be made, were the Edmonton district to forego the advantages to be derived from making a perfect display of the country's capabilities, and to establish their supremacy in agriculture, and the varied resources of farm, forest and stream. There should be but one feeling, namely, to strengthen Lieutenant Governor Mackintosh's hands in every possible way; to forego any jealousies and to work heartily side by side with him in making the first Territorial Exhibition a great and suggestive success. He has told the people of the east to come and see, and has challenged the inspection of the world with regard to what the people have, and can, accomplish. A large number of entries, a loyal and enthusiastic attendance, in short perfect success, all mean wealth to those who have sufficient energy and industry, and common-sense to properly estimate the great advantages which will accrue from a generous support of the Exhibition. To find His Excellency the Governor-General putting himself to great inconvenience at this season of the year, to visit the Northwest and to officially open the proceedings, is something that should and will stir the public spirit of our people. Entry lists close on the 20th of July. Every settler, every producer, every manufacturer, who can add to the number of exhibitors, should not hesitate, even at great sacrifice to come forward and further the good work. The earlier the entries are made, the better will be the classification.

A VISITOR'S VIEWS.

W. H. Gillard, of the wholesale grocery firm of W. H. Gillard & Co., Hamilton, Ont., arrived on Monday's train. Although this is Mr. Gillard's first visit here he is no stranger to Edmonton, having invested largely in Edmonton property in 1882, and indeed he is still one of the largest single holders of property in the place. Asked as to how he came to invest so heavily in a place that he had never seen and at that time was rather out of the world, Mr. Gillard replied that he had faith in the reports which he had received from traders and others who had visited the region and locality as to its fertility, climate and natural resources being superior to those of any other part of the Northwest. He felt satisfied that in such a region there must be a great business centre, and as Edmonton was already established as the business centre of the district he had full confidence that as the country developed the place would grow and that when railways were built the business and financial interests already established would be protected. He finds that the country and town more than realize the reports which he had heard, that the district is surprisingly fertile, that its resources of coal are unlimited and its gold and timber very valuable. The town is unequalled for beauty of situation in the Northwest and is the centre of trade for a far greater area of country than he had ever imagined. At present the town is full of fur traders who have come hundreds of miles from the east, north and west to dispose of their furs and outfit with goods. He is surprised that a place of such commercial importance should have received such scant consideration from the government, and that when a railway was being chartered it was allowed to stop short of the established business centre of such a great region, which was evidently done to suit personal ends and not in the interest of the development of the country. He considers that the government have not dealt liberally or even fairly with the people here in not before now rectifying the mistake by constructing a railway bridge, which would connect them with the railway system of the country. Mr. Gillard leaves on to-morrow's train for Calgary and the coast.

The Medicine Hat News says: During the month of June we have had an almost unprecedented downfall of rain. Almost every day we have had a shower of some kind, and as a natural consequence, garden stuff, grain crops, hay and pasture lands are all in fine condition. Sloughs in which there has not been water for years, are said to be filling up. Both upland and slough hay will be a little later in maturing this year than usual, but will be a splendid crop.

DOMINION DAY.

South Edmonton was highly favored in its list of July sports by splendid weather. The day was fine throughout excepting a slight sprinkle at noon and a rather heavier one in the evening. The attendance was very large and everyone seemed pleased and satisfied. They were out for a holiday, not to make or lose money on either horses or men. A refreshment and lunch tent was managed by the Presbyterian ladies aid, of South Edmonton. Messrs. Lauder, Bisset, Sheppard, Sharples and Brunelle, had booths, and there were two dancing tents managed by Messrs. Gurneau and Smith respectively.

STONY PLAIN SPORTS.

The list of July demonstration under the auspices of the patrons of industry of Warden district, Stony Plain, came off with great success. The sports and amusements began at 1 o'clock p. m., at which time a large crowd was present. M. McKinlay and M. McDermid had been appointed managers. It was arranged that the entrance fee in each case would be given to the winner, as the object of the occasion was sport and amusement not lucre, competitors unanimously agreeing. The programme was as follows:

Horse race, 3 heats, 7 entries—M. McKinlay's "Jordy" 1st.

Foot race, 7 entries—Neil McDermid 1st. Long Leap, 7 entries—M. McKinlay 1st. Hop step and leap, 5 entries—M. McKinlay 1st.

Running leap, 8 entries—D. L. McKinlay 1st.

Vaulting, 3 entries—M. McKinlay 1st. Putting stone—M. McDermid 1st.

Tug of war. Married against single, the latter winning. There was quite an excitement over it.

Wire performance by F. Brault, from Egg lake, was a novelty to many and much admired by the people.

A large dancing booth was erected opposite the school house door giving an area of 1200 square feet. It is needless to say the fantastic toe continuously glanced or glided gracefully. The best of music by Professors J. McDermid, Neil McMillan, D. Dodd and Hans Anderson.

After the sports at 9:30 p. m. the president, Mr. W. Sims of the patrons of industry, proclaimed order and made a neat speech. He called on M. McKinlay who stated fluently the benefits flowing from such gatherings to blend racial ideas towards one common cause for the prosperity of the general country. The speeches were roundly applauded and much appreciated by those present.

The Prince Albert Times mentions that a little green wood house is destroying the foliage of the maple trees in that vicinity and so killing the trees.

According to the Wall Street News, "there are twenty well built towns in Kansas without a single inhabitant to waken the echoes of their deserted streets." It is said that Saratoga, one of these deserted villages, has a $20,000 opera house, a large brick hotel, a $50,000 school house, and a number of business houses with nobody to claim even a place to sleep. All this came about by booming on borrowed capital without resources enough to pay the interest. People moved away from these towns as a new way of paying old debts.
